Constitution.

AS AMENDED TO MARCH, 1897.

The President, and in his absence the Vice-President, shall preside at the meetings of the Club and of the Council. In the event of their absence, a meeting of the Club or of the Council may elect its presiding officers. The President shall, with the Secretary, sign all written contracts and obligations of the Club, and shall perform such other duties as the Council or the Club may assign him.

IV.

1. The Council shall consist of twenty members, five of whom shall be elected by ballot at each Annual Meeting of the Club, to replace the outgoing class and to take office at the expiration of the term of such outgoing class. They shall hold office for four years, or until the fourth Annual Meeting after their election. The Council shall have general charge of the affairs, funds, and property of the Club. They shall have full power, and it shall be their duty, to carry out the purposes of the Club according to its Charter, Constitution, and By-Laws.

2. The Council shall, as soon as may be after each Annual Meeting, elect from its own body a President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer, who shall hold office until the third Saturday of the succeeding March, and until their successors are elected.

3. The Council shall submit at each Annual Meeting a general report of the affairs of the Club, with an estimate for the ensuing year, which shall be printed and distributed to members five days before the Annual Meeting, and shall report at other times if required.

4. The Council shall meet once a month, except during the months of July and August, and Special Meetings may be called by order of the President or of the House Committee. A majority of its members shall constitute a quorum of the Council.

At the Annual Meeting, to be held on the second Saturday of May, 1879, twenty members shall be elected by ballot, who shall constitute the Council, and who shall hold office as provided in Article VI. of this Constitution, and thereafter at each Annual Meeting five members shall be elected by ballot as members of the Council (to replace the outgoing class), whose term of office shall be four years. Vacancies in the other classes shall be also filled at such meeting by ballot, and a majority of the votes cast shall be necessary to elect.

2. Officers and members of the Council shall hold office during the term for which they are elected and until their successors are chosen.

3. If any vacancy shall occur in the Council, such vacancy may be supplied by election, by ballot, at a Special Meeting of the Club, to be called by the Council, provided that at least ten days' notice of such election shall have been posted.

4. Upon the written request of twenty-five members, the Council shall call a special Meeting of the Club, which request, as also the notice of any Special Meeting, shall state the object for which the meeting is called, and at a Special Meeting no subject not so stated shall be considered. Notices of any meeting, whether Annual or Special, shall be posted in the rooms of the Club for one week. Fifty members shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Club.

VIII.

IX.

Committee on Admissions — Election of Members.

1. There shall be a Committee on Admissions, to consist of twenty-one members, seven of whom shall be elected by ballot at each Annual Meeting of the Club, to replace the outgoing class and to take office at the expiration of the term of such outgoing class. The term of office of the members of this Committee shall be three years, or until the third Annual Meeting after their election.

2. A majority of the votes cast shall be necessary to elect; and vacancies in any class shall be filled by the Committee. Eleven members shall constitute a quorum, and two negative votes shall be a rejection of a candidate. No member of the Council shall be a member of this Committee. The names of the Committee shall remain posted in a conspicuous place in the Club rooms. The name, residence, and college or place of instruction of every person proposed for admission, with the names of the members proposing and seconding, shall be exposed in a conspicuous place in the rooms for at least two weeks. Such resignation shall not be accepted until all indebtedness to the Club of the member resigning shall have been discharged.

6. Candidates elected, on payment of the entrance fee and of the dues for the current half-year, shall become members of the Club, and the election of any candidate shall be void if he fail to make such payment within thirty days after notice of his election is mailed, addressed to him at the place given as his residence on the posted list of candidates.

period longer than one year, their dues shall be remitted during the period of such service.

8. The names of all the members who shall fail to pay their semi-annual dues on or before the first days of April and October shall be then posted in a conspicuous place in the Club House; and, if such dues are not paid on the first days of May and November thereafter, such members shall cease to be members of the Club; subject, however, to the provisions of Article VI., Section 7, of the Constitution.

The Library.

REPORT FOR THE YEAR.

From March 1, 1896, to February 28, 1897.

The accessions of the present financial year are registered in the catalogue as Nos. 12,867 to 13,737.

Of these 871 new volumes, 205 were presented, 97 were made up of current periodicals from the reading-room (charged on the Library account at merely the cost of binding, $172.43), and 569 were bought for $1429.70.

The sum of $25.40 was spent in binding a dozen of the gifts which were in paper covers, and $3.50 was spent in rebinding an atlas. The aggregate of these four items is $1631.03, which is $15 more than the Treasurer's actual payments for books and binding during the period. As the recorded purchases of any given year are not all paid for within that year, the Library's annual report can never exactly agree with the Treasurer's of the same date.

The 569 purchases of the year included sets of four periodicals (183 volumes, costing $435.18, as detailed on page 38 following), so that only 386 volumes of general literature were bought, costing $994.42.

During the eight years in which the present librarian has had charge of the books, the number of them has more than doubled.

This growth of the library (from 6530 volumes in March, 1889, to 13,737 volumes in February, 1897) is shown in the following summary:

	BOUGHT.	BOUND.	GIVEN.	TOTAL.	COST.

Totals for eight years	4710	933	1564	7207	$13,246

The second column of the above table refers to the binding of periodicals and pamphlets, whose original cost is not considered. The last column is derived from the annual statements of the Treasurer, whose financial year does not in each of these cases run from March to February, and whose annual payments do not in any case exactly coincide with the purchases of the same year. It is believed, however, that the actual outlay for the 5443 volumes bought or bound during the eight years is very closely represented by the total of $13,246.

Of the 205 gifts, 107 are accredited to the 50 individuals named in the first two columns of the following list (21 of whom are designated by the star as non-members of the Club), and the other 98 are accredited to the 25 institutions or official persons named in the third column. The gifts comprise 84 volumes of college memorabilia, 47 volumes of public documents or official reports, and 22 volumes written or edited by eleven members of the Club.

The gift from the Secretary of State (secured at the instance of Mr. William Williams) consists of the second half of the "documents at the Paris tribunal of 1893 in regard to the fur seal arbitration," —the first eight volumes having been acknowledged a year ago. The gift from the Secretary of War includes three volumes of the documentary history of the Rebellion (bringing the total up to 102), and also the great atlas of 178 plates illustrative of these documents. This atlas having been published in 35 parts, during a term of years, has now been bound with index in two volumes, at a cost of $5.50. Eleven volumes of the census of 1890, in continuation of the gift of Mr. W. Bourke Cockran, former Congressman of this district, have arrived from the Department of the Interior, and later ones will follow as fast as published.

The report of Mr. T. F. Brownell concerning the increase of Harvard memorabilia during the fifteen months ending Feb. 28, 1897, says: "There have been added to the collection 48 volumes, including 5 periodicals. These 48 volumes contain about 161 separate publications. The entire collection now numbers 451 volumes, containing about 7148 separate publications, including daily papers. The whole amount of money received and expended by me upon the collection since my appointment is $644.30. Subscriptions to the amount of $60 have been received during the year from the following Harvard men (though the first named is not a member of the Club): F. K. Pendleton, Ogden Mills, E. W. Hawkins, S. L. Parrish, Amory G. Hodges, Charles Stewart Davison (second subscription), Eric L. Dahlgren (third subscription), Thomas Clyde, and Marshall H. Clyde. The last three contributed $10 each, the others $5 each. The list of 22 donors of printed matter to the collection is as follows: Peter B. Olney, George A. Plimpton, Henry Tuck, George S. Morison, and T. F. Brownell, of the Club; L. H. Bagg, Stacy C. Richmond, and A. Roelker, of New York; A. M. Barnes, J. R. Chadwick, A. J. Garceau, C. E. Grinnell, A. H. Newman, and J. T. Wheelwright, of Boston; E. K. Rand, of Chicago; Arthur Gilman, J. P. Hayden, W. R. Thayer, Astronomical Observatory, Bussey Institution, Peabody Museum, and Harvard University of Cambridge."

The 27 additions to the Princeton collection raise the total to 248 volumes, uniformly bound in orange and black,— the sum of $40.15 having been paid by the Princeton men for binding the 27. These comprise 2 scrap-books of newspaper clippings for 1896, 11 volumes of historical, memorial, and educational pamphlets, 8 of periodicals, 4 of Princeton authors, and 2 of undergraduate material.

Yale's 8 gifts consist of the latest class-records of '54, '75, and '89, vols. 58–60 of the "Lit.," the first volume of the "Epitome," the annual catalogue, and "Yale Yarns," by John Seymour Wood. One volume only has been added to the memorabilia of each of the seven colleges following: Bowdoin, Brown, Columbia, Hamilton, University of Michigan, University of Virginia, and Williams.

"Memorabilia of the reception given at the University Club in the City of New York to the delegates from foreign universities in attendance at the sesquicentennial celebration of Princeton University on Friday, October 23, 1896": such is the type-written title-page to a collection of the responses written by invited guests, with the printed matter connected with the occasion, mounted in a special scrap-book by a binder ($20), and presented by the Council.

"University Club Memorabilia, 1865–1897," is the title of a similar scrap-book of 100 numbered leaves procured in October at a cost of $10, to contain the collection presented by Mr. Sidney E. Morse. Members who may possess any printed scrap concerning the Club not already pasted in this book are invited to hand the same to the librarian for insertion therein. Newspaper clippings will be especially welcomed, because few have been preserved. Mr. Morse also presented a set of the Club Annuals, 1878–94, which have been rebound in four volumes at a cost of $5.40. Although 300 copies were printed of the first Annual (1865), and 500 of the second (1867), only two of each are now in the possession of the Club, and it is earnestly desired that additional ones be presented for binding in sets. Council reports of 1880 and 1881 are also wanted for a like purpose.

The chief gift of the year was from Mrs. Susan V. Wynkoop, as a memorial of her son-in-law, the late Eugene E. Dewey, to whom it is accredited on the list. It consists of Watkins's "Photographs of the Pacific coast and the Columbia river," in a pair of solidly bound volumes (two feet wide, two feet four inches high, and three inches thick), which are the heaviest ones belonging to the Club, and the most costly, their original price approximating $500. Panels of California laurel-wood, highly polished, are inlaid in the covers. Lieutenant-Commander Chenery, who was a friend of the former owner during his lifetime, suggested to Mrs. Wynkoop that this memorial gift might appropriately be deposited in this Library. He himself has also presented "Captain Cook's voyage to the Pacific": three leather-bound volumes, published at Dublin in 1784.

The largest numerical contribution of the year was from Mr. Charles Dudley Warner, 17 of his own works, in response to the Committee's invitation in last report to authors who are members of the Club. The set of "Harper's Weekly" was made complete by Mr. George Sherman's gift of the volume for 1860, except that indexes are still wanted for 1865 and 1879–82.

A framed photograph of the marble bust of Theodore Dwight Woolsey, president of Yale from 1846 to 1871, was presented in February by his son, Prof. Theodore S. Woolsey. A bronze copy of the medal commemorative of Princeton's sesquicentennial celebration was also received in February from President Patton.

The most notable outlay for the year was $435 for four sets of periodicals, comprising 183 volumes, as follows: the first part of "Punch," in 45 annual volumes, 1841–85, uniform half-morocco binding, was got at a bargain for $100 in cash and the return of six years' cloth-bound numbers; while the second part, 1886–95, from unbound numbers previously owned and a few purchases, cost $22.65. A still greater bargain was the first 73 volumes of "Illustrated London News," 1842–78, at $148.53, a sum considerably less than the cost of the half-morocco binding. Of the 109 volumes, the only 9 now lacking to a complete set are represented by the dates January to June, 1879; July, 1884, to December, 1887. The numbers of the "New England Historic Genealogical Register," 1847–95 (wanting only the years 1862–64), were bought for $140, and bound in 46 volumes for $46, though the ruling price of complete sets is $225 to $250. A perfect file of the "New York Genealogical and Biographical Record," 1869–96, uniformly bound in 9 volumes of three years each, was secured for $78, though unbound sets have sold for $90 to $100, and are all the while appreciating in price.

While the Committee does not feel inclined to buy the histories of individual families, grateful acknowledgment will be made to such members as may be willing to contribute their own family-books to the genealogical department of the Library. Three important gifts of this sort have already been made.

Memorial Resolutions.

At a special meeting of the Council of the University Club, held on Saturday, September 19, 1896, the following Minute was unanimously adopted:

"The Council of the University Club of the City of New York, having met for the purpose of taking appropriate action upon the death of their former President, Henry H. Anderson, desire to place upon the records of the Club some expression of the sentiment universally felt among the membership touching the solemn event which has brought them together.

"Mr. Anderson, after many years of usefulness and deserved prominence at the bar and before the public, was the unanimous choice of the University Club for its Presidency, at the time of its reorganization in 1879. He filled this position with honor and with the cordial approbation and support of the whole membership during nine full terms, and was permitted to resign in 1888 only out of deference to his own decided wish.

"The unprecedented prosperity of the Club was largely due to his wise guidance. His upright character and unblemished life were an example not only within this circle, but throughout the community. Both during the incumbency of his office, and afterwards, his presence and his counsels were sought and valued. He was not simply a respected and trusted leader, but a welcome friend whose absence will be keenly felt by all.

"No form of words can adequately express the grief which the death of such a man brings to those who have had the privilege of enjoying his companionship and profiting by his coöperation; but those who have been his associates in the maintenance and development of a representative Club of educated men wish, by the adoption of this Minute, to recognize the debt which they owe to their friend now departed, and to pay to his memory the sincere and emphatic tribute of their respect and affection."
